Rolling hills guthrie

Twin Tiers' hills and mountains offer unparalleled opportunities for hiking, cycling, rowing, skiing, hunting, fish or even soaring at the local glider airport. In Guthrie, local physical and mental wellbeing is a top priority, and the region offers plenty of opportunities to recharge, stay active and have fun during downtime. The four-season climate occupies outdoor enthusiasts throughout the year – with seemingly endless badlands to explore with walking and cycling trails. In winter, you can also find downhill skiing, cross-country skiing, snowshoeing and snowmobiles nearby. Finger Lakes communities support museums, performing arts and organized events throughout the year. Iconic names dot the region and include the city of Corning bearing the Fortune 500 Society name and are presented at the Corning Museum of Glass and Rockwell Museum. Ithaca, home of Cornell University and Ithaca College, sits at the base of Lake Cayuga, the longest in Finger Lake. It boasts stunning park and trail systems, breathtaking gorges with waterfalls, lively nightlife and restaurants. Watkins Glen or The Glen sits at the base of Lake Seneca and is well known to race fans at Watkins Glen International. The natural geological wonders of 11 Finger Lakes and more than 30 waterfalls are known not only for their water sports and leisure opportunities, but also for their successful vineyards and wine industry. If you crave an escape from bright lights and a great city, both New York City and Philadelphia have light weekend trips in less than four hours, and the cities of Syracuse and Rochester are a scenic two-hour drive away. Residency is an inherently challenging endeavor. Resident wellness is taken very seriously and is constantly appreciated. The faculty and staff are committed to a positive learning environment and a healthy, sustainable lifestyle. Welcome to Guthrie - one of the country's most fascinating historic cities. Guthrie was born in April 1889 and became a city of more than 10,000 people in one day. Built with Victorian elegance, the magnificent architecture of Oklahoma's first state capital remains a national historic landmark. Guthrie is located in the rolling hills along Interstate 35 - just 31 miles north of downtown Oklahoma City and the Oklahoma City MSA (1.2 million). This vibrant community is home to more than 10,000 residents who enjoy the highest quality small town in rural Oklahoma living along with the culture, history and economic growth most commonly found in much larger cities. Business Location Benefits Guthrie is a business-friendly community and county seat – offering exceptional labor, low business costs and more shovel-ready sites for commercial, residential and retail development. It is a fast growing city offering a regional airport, medical center and an influx of tourism, manufacturing, industrial and agricultural businesses that help the city grow, and Logan County. Oklahoma's low cost of business is coupled with Guthrie's low cost of living - which is 23% lower than the U.S. average. Educational opportunities abound with ten higher education institutions located within easy reach. The Guthrie Public School system ... provides an excellent preparatory educational base for higher education and vocational training students. Guthrie serves the BNSF Railway and is also located within minutes of the country's interstate intersection (I-40, I-35 and I-44) and Will Rogers World Airport, offering dozens of direct flights daily. Quality of life Guthrie is a great place to live, work and raise a family. You will find your home and lifestyle that you are looking for in Guthrie. From our excellent early childhood programs to cutting-edge health care and leading life opportunities, our community provides an extraordinary quality of life for all kinds of people, from young families to pensioners The city is at the forefront of ensuring balanced growth while retaining small-town attractiveness. Culture and recreation in 1889, Guthrie was appointed the first capital and became the government headquarters of the area, and later, the state of Oklahoma. Today, Guthrie is the largest urban historic district in the United States, consisting of 2,169 buildings, 1,400 acres and 400 city blocks. History comes alive every day on historic trolleybus tours and places like the Oklahoma Area Museum and five other museums.
